Class History

As we started our journey through high school, we made some special stops along the way. We also ran into several rough spots, but each of us kept moving along toward the future and the goal at the end.

To start our journey that first year, we chose Julian Bauserman to lead us, and Noel Daniels to assist him. Jaculin Lehman was our secretary and Marcia Sprunger, treasurer. We made a special stop for a skating party that year.

Our leaders for our Sophomore year were Greg Stahly, president; Paul Habegger, vice-president; Ruth Von Gunten, secretary; and Sue Kingsley, treasurer. We stopped along the way to give the play "Three and the Dragon." Other highlights included having a gym party and ordering our class rings.

Our officers for our Junior year were David Steury, president; Rodney Liechty, vice-president; Janet Graber, secretary; and Sandra Bransteter, treasurer. In our Junior year ye presented the play, "The Dust of the Road." Our Junior-Senior Reception theme was "An Old English Inn" and the cafeteria was given the atmosphere of an inn.

During our Senior year, we were very happy to receive our senior pictures. Our leaders for our last year of high school were David Steury, president; Greg Stahly, vice-president; Bradley Lehman, secretary; and Suzanne Sprunger, treasurer. We dedicated this edition of OUR YESTERDAYS to Mr. Parks in appreciation of a job well done.

Our class motto is "In Ourselves Our Future Lies" and our class flower is a white carnation. Our class colors are crystal blue and cameo white.

We greatly enjoyed the Pops Concert, the Junior-Senior Reception, and the Alumni Banquet. We have now received our diplomas, the last step in this part of our journey.

In our third year of playing varsity football, the Bears combined a great willingness to learn and hard work. They came up short in the scoring department but they didn't give up.

The co-captains were seniors, Dick McKean and Barton Sprunger. Seniors who will be missed next year are Paul Habegger, Tony Taylor, Christy Stauffer, Dick McKean, Barton Sprunger, Fred Clauser, Brad Lehman, Dennis Liechty, Bill Lehman, Ron Von Gunten, Ed Speicher, Ed Watanabe, Dave Chilcote.

The leading passer was Bart Sprunger (percentage) and Rick Inniger (yardage). The leading tackler was Dick McKean, leading ground gainer, Jay Yager, and place kicker, Fred Clauser.

Our football team is looking more promising as the years go by even though we lose some of our players.

The '64 Homecoming was moved to the football field this year.

A parade was held before the game in which the queen candidates were escorted through town in convertibles. There were also floats entered by each class and many other organizations.

At halftime the band performed on the field after which the coronation was held. Jennifer Lehman, the 1963 queen, crowned Judy Burke queen for 1964.
